The screenshot shows the Erasmus+ website interface. At the top, there is the Erasmus+ logo and the text 'Il sito nazionale del Programma europeo per l'istruzione, la formazione, la gioventù e lo sport'. Below this is a navigation menu with categories: 'Il Programma', 'Istruzione scolastica', 'Formazione professionale', 'Istruzione superiore', 'Gioventù', 'Educazione degli adulti', and 'Sport'. The main content area features a large blue banner with the text 'Il Programma' and 'Documenti ufficiali'. Below the banner, there is a breadcrumb trail 'Home > Documenti ufficiali' and a secondary navigation menu with items: 'Cos'è Erasmus+', 'Opportunità Erasmus+', 'Da sapere', 'Paesi partecipanti', 'Come fare domanda', 'Documenti ufficiali' (highlighted with a yellow box), 'Scadenze', and 'Informativa sulla Privacy'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column has a heading 'Regolamento (UE) 2021/817 del Parlamento europeo e del Consiglio che istituisce Erasmus+' and a sub-heading 'il Programma dell'Unione per l'istruzione, la formazione, la gioventù e lo sport. Il Regolamento è la base legale che definisce il Programma Erasmus+ 2021-2027, con obiettivi e finalità per le azioni ivi contenute.' ------------------------------	---

<sup>53</sup> Mobility between institutions involved in delivering a joint or double degree is eligible to be funded as long as there is no double funding. In the case of joint or double degrees, the institution sending the participant on mobility is the one funding the mobility supported by internal policy funds. In the case of international mobility, institutions involved in delivering a joint or double degree can use funding from mobility projects supported by internal and external policy funds, while respecting the eligibility of activities and flows in each strand.

KEY ACTION 1_HE: international mobility

Inter-institutional agreements 20[14]-20[23]

between institutions from
Programme and Partner Countries

International outgoing mobility supported by internal policy funds

International mobility activities to any non-associated country are financed from the grant awarded to mobility projects. Grant beneficiaries may use up to 20% of the last awarded project grant for outgoing mobility to non-associated countries all over the world (Regions 1-12). These opportunities are intended to encourage an organisation in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme to develop outgoing mobility activities with several third countries not associated to the Programme, and are expected to cover the widest possible geographic scope.

Accordi Interistituzionali (IIA)

Inter-institutional Agreements | Erasmus+ (europa.eu)

- Student mobility for studies: IIA required.
- Student mobility for traineeships: IIA may include support for organising traineeships in the partner HEI (laboratory, university hospital etc.).
- Staff mobility for teaching: IIA required.
- Staff mobility for training: IIA may include support for organising training in the partner HEI (job shadowing, etc.).

Non è necessario un IIA separato se già ne esiste uno per la KA131 o per la KA171

KEY ACTION 1_HE: Erasmus accreditation for higher education mobility consortia

The application for accreditation will be assessed against the following award criteria:

Relevance of the consortium
(maximum score 30 points)

- The relevance of the proposal to:
  - the objectives of the action;
  - the needs and objectives of the organisations participating in the consortium and of the individual participants.
- The extent to which the proposal is relevant for the respect and promotion of shared EU values, such as respect for human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, the rule of law and respect for human rights, as well as fighting any sort of discrimination.
- The extent to which the proposal is suitable for:
  - producing high-quality learning outcomes for participants;
  - reinforcing the capacities and international scope of the organisations participating in the consortium;
  - bringing added value at EU level through results that would not be attained by activities carried out by each individual HEI.
